

OWNERS AND OCCUPIERS OF LAUDERDALE HOUSE, HIGHGATE

1582	Sir Richard Martin	Master of the Mint, Lord Mayor
1582-1590	Richard Martin jr	Goldsmith, son of Sir Richard
1590-1599	John Povey	Merchant, Governor of Highgate School
1599-1625	Sir William Bond	Merchant
	Lady Bond	William Bond's widow
1625-1635	Sir Henry Hobart	Lord Chief Justice of Common Pleas
1635-1641	William Geere	Merchant
1641-1645	Countess of Home	Dowager
1645-1649	Countess of Lauderdale	Lady Home's daughter
	Earl of Lauderdale	Jailed during the Commonwealth
1649-1660	John Ireton	Cromwellian MP & Lord Mayor
1660	Sir Richard Ford	Royalist
1660-1669	Lord & Lady Lauderdale	Returned after Restoration. He was L of CABAL
1670	Nell Gwynn	Actress
1675-1677	German Ireton
1677-1680	William Mead	Prominent Quaker
1680-1685	John Hinde	Property speculator and bankrupt
1688-1705	Sir William Pritchard	MP, Lord Mayor; his heirs owned the House until 1865
1705-1726	Edward Pauncefort	Prosperous supplier to the Government Sponsor of the almshouses in Southwood Lane
1726-1794	Various leaseholders
1746	Mathew Langley	Oil merchant
1752	Sir Thomas Burnett	Judge of the Common Pleas
1756	Martha Draper
1780	John Cobb	Craftsman/ furniture maker
1794-1808	Diana Kearton	School-keepers
	Harriet Sheldon
1808-1811	Petrie & Scott	School-keepers
1812-1837	William Gittins	Young gentlemen's boarding school
1837-1842	Thomas Howe
1842-1850	James Yates FRS	Unitarian and educationist
1850-1889	Sir Sydney Waterlow	MP, printer, Lord Mayor, philanthropist
1872-1878	St Bartholomew's Hospital	The house was a convalescent home
1889-1964	London County Council	Flats for park-keepers and their families including
1934-1947	Joy Hunt (Joy Whileman)	Joy's father was a gardener in the Park
[1963	The fire]
1964-1971	Greater London Council
1971	London Borough of Camden
1978-present	Lauderdale House Society
1997-present	Peter Gallagher	Operations Manager for the House

This list is largely based on that compiled for Lauderdale Revealed by Peter Barber, Oliver Cox and Michael Curwen (1993) and is offered as a guide to the many names involved in Lauderdale House's story, rather than a fully updated and researched record.

Nick Peacey, February 2021