

HLSI - MORE SPRING LECTURES

Tuesday evening lectures on Zoom

HLSI members - free (but donations welcome)
non-members - £5 per lecture or £30 for all 7
Book online at www.hlsi.net

4 MAY
6.00pm

Making change: The Decimalisation of Britain's Currency - Tom Hockenhull, curator of medals and modern money at the British Museum

11 MAY
6.00pm

The Architecture of the post-war City, 1945 - 1985 - Mike Althorpe, urban historian, architectural researcher, educator

18 MAY
6.00pm

Pictures for the People: the Printed image in Britain before Photography - Jasper Jennings, writer and member of the Antiquarian Booksellers' Association

1 JUNE
6.00pm

Betjeman, the Metropolitan Line and the Romance of Trains - Andrew Martin, author of fiction and non-fiction, broadcaster and TV presenter

8 JUNE
6.00pm

Transforming London's Look: 150 Years of London Underground Design - Mark Ovenden, author, lecturer, TV and radio presenter

15 JUNE
6.00pm

Living Without Architecture: the Pre-fabricated Home - Colin Davis, architect, author and lecturer

22 JUNE
6.00pm

'As it was, and where it was': the fall and rise of the Venice Campanile - Sarah Quill, author and lecturer on Venice and Trustee of the Venice in Peril Fund